

INFANT

Week

19

Smart Activities

SMART CHOICE. SMARTER CHILD.®

Orange Peek-A-Boo

Materials: yellow paper

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "We are going to play peek-a-boo with orange paper."
2. Hide your face behind the orange paper and observe as your baby attempts to imitate your actions. Encourage your baby to imitate your actions.
3. Enjoy the smile.

The Orange Song

Materials: internet access, website:

<https://youtu.be/XJeEFXycxfc>

Preparation: Preview video.

Instructions:

Enjoy this song about the color orange with your baby as you point out the orange objects.

Orange Square

Materials: paper, orange crayon

Preparation: Draw a square on the paper.

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "This is a square shape. We are going to color it orange."
2. Assist your baby as you color in the square shape.
3. Enjoy this priceless art.

Sign Language "Done"

Instructions:

1. Place both open hands with fingers pointing up facing the chest. Then, shake them so that palms face down.
2. The sign after a verb means past tense. For example, "Eat finished" means "I've finished eating." "Ice cream finished" means "I've finished eating ice cream."

Oranges

Materials: artificial or toy oranges

Preparation: Gather materials.

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "These are oranges."
2. Encourage your baby to grasp the oranges as you talk about its features.
3. Observe your baby as he/she coordinates motions using eyes and hands.

I am Orange

Materials: internet access, website:

<https://youtu.be/iFKkjMuUIEA>

Preparation: Preview video.

Instructions:

1. Enjoy this song about the color orange.
2. Name the orange objects to promote language development.

Orange Prints

Materials: orange paint, paper

Preparation: Gather materials.

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "We are going to make orange handprints."
2. Paint your baby's hand and gently press it on the paper.
3. Allow your baby to imitate your actions.
4. Enjoy this priceless art.

Sign Language "Done"

Instructions:

1. Place both open hands with fingers pointing up facing the chest. Then, shake them so that palms face down.
2. The sign after a verb means past tense. For example, "Eat finished" means "I've finished eating." "Ice cream finished" means "I've finished eating ice cream."

Orange Outside

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "We are going outside to find orange objects."
2. Name the things that you find.
3. Name and repeat objects to encourage language development.

Orange Song

Materials:

 internet access, website:

<https://youtu.be/Wa5sAi4KBy4>

Preparation:

 Preview video.

Instructions:

1. Enjoy this song about the color orange.
2. Name the orange objects to promote language development.

ORANGE

Orange Collage

Materials:

 orange objects, paper, glue

Preparation:

 Gather materials.

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "We are going to glue the orange objects on the paper."
2. Assist your baby with gluing the objects.
3. Name the objects to encourage language development.

Sign Language "Done"

Instructions:

1. Place both open hands with fingers pointing up facing the chest. Then, shake them so that palms face down.
2. The sign after a verb means past tense. For example, "Eat finished" means "I've finished eating." "Ice cream finished" means "I've finished eating ice cream."

Patty Orange

Materials: orange paper, tape, scissors

Preparation: Cut out two orange circles and tape them to your hands.

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "We are going to sing a short version of Patty Cake."

Patty Cake Patty Cake
(Clap hands together)

Circles Orange

(open your hands to show the orange circles)

2. Observe as your baby engages in active play. Encourage your baby to imitate your actions.
3. Continue as interest remains.

Something Orange

Materials: internet access, website:

<https://youtu.be/Nh-sulT-p3s>

Preparation: Preview video.

Instructions:

1. Enjoy this sing along about the color orange with your baby.
2. Point out and name orange objects to promote vocabulary development.

Orange Everywhere

Materials: paper, orange paint

Preparation: Gather materials.

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "We are going to use our hands and paint paper with orange paint."
2. Paint your baby's hands.
3. Encourage and assist him/her in rubbing the paint on the paper.
4. Observe as your baby explores paint.

Sign Language "Done"

Instructions:

1. Place both open hands with fingers pointing up facing the chest. Then, shake them so that palms face down.
2. The sign after a verb means past tense. For example, "Eat finished" means "I've finished eating." "Ice cream finished" means "I've finished eating ice cream."

Orange is Falling

Materials: orange paper

Preparation: Tear paper into large strips.

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "We are going to watch the orange paper fall down."
2. Encourage your baby to assist you as you toss the paper up.
3. Depending on age/development observe your baby as he/she attempts to imitate your actions.
4. Encourage language development as you say, "Paper up and down." As you toss it.

Orange Sheep

Materials: internet access, website:

<https://youtu.be/aoPE3skynjA>

Preparation: Preview video.

Instructions:

1. Enjoy this orange sing along with your baby to promote language development.

Orange Foot

Materials: paper, orange paint

Preparation: Gather materials.

Instructions:

1. Hold your baby and say, "We are going to paint your feet orange."
2. Paint your baby's foot and gently press it on the paper.
3. Enjoy this priceless art.

Sign Language "Done"

Instructions:

1. Place both open hands with fingers pointing up facing the chest. Then, shake them so that palms face down.
2. The sign after a verb means past tense. For example, "Eat finished" means "I've finished eating." "Ice cream finished" means "I've finished eating ice cream."

