

Grandparents Day: A Special Day to Make Memories!

Grandparents hold such a special place in a child's heart. They fill our lives with love, wisdom, laughter, and memories that last a lifetime. This Grandparents Day, we are excited to celebrate the beautiful bond between our children and their grandparents!

Join us for a special Grandparents Playdate this Friday from 9:30–10:30 AM. It will be a wonderful morning filled with smiles, play, connection, and quality time together. We hope our grandparents can join us and make a few more precious memories with their little ones!

Please sign up by Wednesday, September 2nd to reserve your spot. We look forward to celebrating our amazing grandparents and the love they bring to our children's lives!

LABOR DAY CLOSURE

Happy Labor Day!

Wishing all our wonderful families a safe and relaxing Labor Day! We hope you enjoy this special day with your loved ones. Please remember that our school will be closed on Monday, September 7th, in observance of Labor Day. We look forward to welcoming everyone back on Tuesday!

World Letter writing Day - 9/1

A little letter can make a big difference! Celebrate National Letter Writing Day by asking your child: "Who would you like to write a letter to?" It could be a grandparent, family member, friend, teacher, or someone special. Encourage your little one to share some love through their words!

Patriot Day - 9/11

On Patriot Day, we remember and honor the lives and heroes of September 11, 2001. We take a moment to recognize the courage, kindness, and unity shown by so many, and to remind our children of the importance of helping others and coming together as a community.

Orange Shirt Day - 9/30

Let's wear orange and celebrate kindness, inclusion, and making sure every child feels valued and welcomed!

Side Note: We know our school uniforms are orange shirts, but this is your chance to switch it up! —any orange shirt will do!

Celebrating the Start of Hispanic Heritage Month!

This month, we are excited to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month and honor the beautiful cultures, traditions, stories, and contributions of Hispanic and Latino communities. It is a wonderful opportunity for our children to learn about different traditions, explore music, art, food, languages, and celebrate the rich diversity that makes our community so special. Throughout the month, our classrooms will enjoy meaningful activities that encourage curiosity, respect, and appreciation for the many cultures represented in our school community. Together, we celebrate that our differences make our world more colorful, connected, and beautiful!

Value of the Month: Respect

This month, we are focusing on Respect! We're helping our children learn to use kind words, listen to others, care for their classroom, and appreciate everyone around them. Together, we can build a caring community where everyone feels valued and respected.

Parent Teacher Conferences

A reminder to our wonderful families that Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held Thursday, September 3rd. This is a great opportunity to connect with your child's teacher, discuss their progress, and celebrate their growth! Please sign up for a time slot on your child's classroom door. We look forward to seeing you!

Celebrating Working Parents Day! - 9/16

Today, we celebrate all the amazing working parents who give so much each day to support, provide for, and love their families. Balancing work, family, and everything in between takes dedication, strength, and a whole lot of heart! We see and appreciate the early mornings, busy schedules, long days, and the precious moments you make time for with your children. Thank you for being wonderful role models and showing your little ones the importance of hard work, commitment, and love. Happy Working Parents Day to all of our incredible families! Your children are lucky to have you cheering them on every step of the way.
