Illness Policy Acknowledgement

Please read the Illness Policy and Notification carefully. It is imperative that we work together to keep all of our families and staff healthy. After reading the Health and Wellness Section of the Kids 'R' Kids Parent Handbook, please sign, date and return the acknowledgement below. The signed portion will be kept on file to verify that you have read and agree to follow the Kids 'R' Kids Health/ Illness, Exclusion Policies. You may keep a copy of the policy for future reference. You may also refer to the Kids 'R' Kids Parent Handbook and reference the sections on "Health and Wellness: Guideline for who cannot attend Kids R Kids due to illness".

I, _____, acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Health/Illness/ Exclusion Policy.

I agree that my family will cooperate and not ask the staff to make exception regarding my child, _____, being excluded from attendance, due to illness.

I agree that I will pick up my child within one hour of being contacted about my child being ill. If I am unable to pick up my child in that timeframe, I will make arrangements for a designated person to do so.

In the meantime, we will make every effort to make your child comfortable, while excluding him/ her from the classroom in the Boo-Boo room to reduce the risk of further exposure.

I further acknowledge that kids 'R' Kids administration may consider extenuating circumstances that warrant tighter restrictions than those listed in this notification or the State of Texas Child Care Licensing Division Minimum Standards; such as the child having recently being excluded for the same symptoms or finding out the child exhibited these behaviors before arriving at school; if there appears to be a pattern of illness in the classroom resulting in one or more children being excluded for the same symptoms; or if the Texas Department of Health and Human Services or the Centers for Disease Control enact more stringent guidelines due to public health situations.
